Re: SDG&E RESPONSE TO INVITATION TO BID FOR A FRANCHISE TO CONSTRUCT, MAINTAIN AND USE POLES, WIRES, CONDUITS AND APPURTENANCES FOR TRANSMITTING AND DISTRIBUTING ELECTRICITY IN THE STREETS OF THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

SDG&E BID DETAILS BEGIN ON PAGE 3 OF THIS DOCUMENT

Dear Purchasing & Contracting Department, Mayor Gloria, and Honorable Members of the City Council,

San Diego Gas & Electric Company ("SDG&E") is pleased to submit this responsive bid for a franchise to construct, maintain and use poles, wires, conduits, and appurtenances for transmitting and distributing electricity in the streets of the City of San Diego ("SDG&E Electric Franchise Bid").

We take this opportunity to thank the City of San Diego for its efforts to make this Invitation to Bid ("ITB") an open process, which has invited discussion on key terms in the ITB and has engaged interested community stakeholders through an expansive community forum, survey, and outreach process in January and February 2021. As the Mayor's office announced, over 1,300 community organizations and leaders, city residents, employees, and elected officials had their voices heard before this solicitation was released. We are committed to participating in this process and look forward to an opportunity to discuss the details of our bid and the terms of the Electric Franchise in person.

SDG&E would be honored and humbled to be the City's energy partner. We believe that SDG&E is the best choice to help the City achieve its bold climate goals, which have become a model for the rest of the nation. SDG&E is a "responsible person" as defined by the City in the ITB. SDG&E is financially responsible and capable of constructing, maintaining, and using poles, wires, conduits, and appurtenances for transmitting and distributing electricity in the streets of the City of San Diego, as it has done for more than 100 years. However, we are not only a responsible bidder – we are uniquely qualified to serve the important mission of ensuring clean, safe, reliable, and equitable energy to San Diego. Our more than 4,000 highly trained employees, which include more than 1,350 union members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and 1,700 City of San Diego residents, have devoted their lives and careers to this mission.

We believe SDG&E's unique qualifications help position us ahead of other bidders, beginning with the company's employees who personally contribute to the City's economic and social prosperity because we live and work in this community and take personal pride in seeing the community thrive. We are an unwavering and growing force of San Diego residents, co-workers, and community leaders, who are passionate about the well-being of the City, its residents and businesses and the City's vision for the future. It is this collective enthusiasm for our future that sets us apart from all others.

Our focus on climate is the centerpiece of our business strategy. We know that San Diegans care deeply about reducing the harmful effects of climate change and supporting equity in communities of concern. We share these concerns and stand ready to collaborate with the City as it aggressively pursues 100% renewable energy and exemplary environmental objectives, while promoting equity in every San Diego neighborhood.

Indeed, SDG&E has intentionally aligned our climate focus with the objectives of the City, region, and the state. We emphasized our commitment to clean and equitable energy when we issued our first Sustainability Strategy in October 2020, and last month when we announced our climate pledge to reach Net Zero Greenhouse Gas Emissions by 2045.

Achieving 100% clean energy and net zero GHG emissions while never losing sight of safety, reliability and affordability is the moonshot challenge of our era and one the SDG&E team fully embraces. In partnership with the City and community stakeholders, we have made tangible progress over the past decade. As we submit this response, our employees are working to implement projects to help make our shared climate goals a reality, one project at a time. For example, a new battery storage facility is nearing completion in the Miramar area which will help maximize the use of San Diego's abundant solar energy while hardening the energy grid during summer months.

Together we accomplished visionary work in electrifying transportation – the most impactful way to reduce GHG emissions. We deployed electric vehicle charging network at parks, beaches, schools, and commercial/industrial sites. SDG&E constructed a safer, greener, more climate-resilient grid, built or retrofitted municipal facilities to LEED standards, and achieved our fourth consecutive year with zero leaks on our gas system by eliminating repair backlogs. And we continue to visualize a clean energy transition to help our city and region become a model in sustainability.

SDG&E's established commitment to the City goes well beyond the energy services we provide every day. We have contributed measurable benefits within the communities we serve. We employ San Diegans in good paying jobs. Through our nation-leading supplier diversity program, we work to ensure our suppliers reflect the communities we are privileged to serve. We have partnered with local colleges and universities to further climate resiliency. We have contributed generously to, and spent countless volunteer hours in support of, local nonprofit organizations.

We are committed to helping the City realize its vision of clean, safe, reliable, and equitable energy. We believe more can be done collaboratively to bring the broad-ranging business experience and the talents of SDG&E's employees to support the City's advancement in technology, procurement, fleet, facilities, environmental and other potential business opportunities and look forward to an opportunity to collaborate with you, as set forth in greater detail in our Cooperation Agreement proposal.

While we have come a long way in our 140-year history of serving San Diego residents and businesses, we do not take our relationship with the City for granted. It is with a renewed commitment to better communication, accountability, and transparency that we are eager to be your long-term partner, and to deliver the energy future that the City desires and the region and our customers expect. Together with the City, IBEW and other labor partners, and community, environmental and business groups, we will deliver the bright energy future the City and our community deserves.

SDG&E ELECTRIC FRANCHISE BID DETAILS

Acceptance of Material Terms of the ITB:

Bid Amount Paid to City: SDG&E accepts the full bid amount of $70 million.

Bid Amount Not from Ratepayers: SDG&E agrees that the Bid Amount will not be paid by ratepayers at any time.

Bid Term: SDG&E accepts the bid term structure of an initial primary term of 10 years followed by a secondary term of 10 years, subject to further discussions to negotiate acceptable language in the franchise agreement relating to the process for evaluating a secondary or successive term to ensure accountability, clarity, and certainty with respect to that process, particularly in light of the unprecedented Bid Amount SDG&E is offering.

Fees Paid to City: SDG&E agrees to pay to the City the franchise fees and undergrounding surcharges in the amounts described in the draft franchise ordinance.

Community Choice Aggregation (CCA): SDG&E welcomes the opportunity to partner with the City on its CCA, San Diego Community Power, to ensure a successful transition for customers.

Commencement of Operations: SDG&E confirms that it can continue operations on the target date of June 2, 2021 in the draft franchise ordinance without interruption to the existing franchise fees and undergrounding surcharges paid to the City. SDG&E possesses all necessary governmental approvals to exercise its rights under the Electric Franchise, including, without limitation, a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity from the California Public Utilities Commission or its equivalent. SDG&E's statement is enclosed.

Insurance: Enclosed is a letter of self-insurance and certificates of insurance verifying SDG&E's compliance with the insurance requirements specified in Section 13 of the draft ordinance.

Charter Section 225: SDG&E is exempt from the disclosure requirements described in San Diego Charter section 225 as a publicly traded company listed on an American stock exchange. SDG&E is wholly owned by Enova Corporation, which is wholly owned by Sempra Energy, an energy-services holding company publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:SRE).

Cooperation Agreement Proposal: As required by the ITB, SDG&E has included a detailed narrative Cooperation Agreement proposal as Attachment "A" to this letter. Our proposal organizes the City's goals described in the ITB Notice and Sections 11 and 12 of the draft ordinance into four categories: (1) Collaboration Opportunities for Clean Energy; (2) Collaboration Opportunities for Safe Energy; (2) Collaboration Opportunities for Reliable Energy; and (4) Collaboration Opportunities for Equitable Energy. We welcome the opportunity to discuss these potential collaboration opportunities with the City in person.

Compliance Review Committee: SDG&E welcomes the formation of a Compliance Review Committee to oversee the City's independent audit of SDG&E's franchise obligations.

Biennial Audits: SDG&E looks forward to working with the City to complete an independent biennial audit of the franchise.

Dispute Resolution: SDG&E agrees to the City's modernized dispute resolution process, adding a mediation option to allow the parties to avoid litigation where appropriate.

Legal, Regulatory, and Good and Prudent Practice Requirements for Discussions: As contemplated by the ITB, we look forward to negotiations with you regarding the specific language in the draft franchise ordinance to ensure SDG&E's compliance obligations under applicable law, regulatory rules and policies, good and prudent utility practices, and protection of electric ratepayer interests. We contemplate that this discussion will include proposed provisions relating to the following:

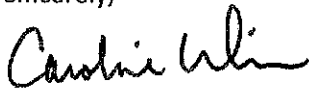

- Details regarding the payment of the Bid Amount
- Details regarding disclosure of SDG&E books and records
- Utility removals and relocations
- Protection of utility facilities
- Clarify obligations regarding employment guarantee
- Operation of the performance bond and liquidated damage amounts

The above topics implicate SDG&E's legal and regulatory obligations, data privacy, electric ratepayer interests and security, and common business practice. We look forward to a discussion with you so that we may jointly address these details to support introduction and adoption of the authorizing ordinance.

We look forward to continuing to grow our relationship with the City of San Diego and all of its residents. SDG&E is a leader in many areas, and I am committed to using this next franchise agreement as a platform for raising our relationship with the City to new heights. SDG&E – more than 4,000 persons strong – looks forward to serving the City and building a bright new energy future together.

Sincerely,

Caroline A. Winn

Today – and in the decades to come – our goal is to deliver a bright energy future to the people of San Diego.
